

Literacy Test (OSSLT) Preparation Site - LMS Online Access Information

Students who are preparing for the OSSLT can access further support for additional literacy skill practice through myCLASS at www.hwcdsb.elearningontario.ca. Users can click on Literacy Test (OSSLT) Preparation Site from the list of available courses. This site offers an overview of the test requirements, tips and strategies for reading and writing, as well as unlimited opportunities for practice quizzes and tests. Students receive immediate feedback and hints to help them improve their skills. This site will be fully operational by the middle of February.

To access the vLE (virtual learning environment), log in to the HWCDSB Online Learning Site found at <http://hwcdsb.elearningontario.ca> using the Username and Password given below. Students may also access the site directly from their secondary school's Learning

My Courses

The screenshot shows a user interface with a 'Message Board' and 'Office 365' header. A message titled 'Now Available! Literacy Test (OSSLT) Preparation Site' is displayed. It features a 'NOW Available' starburst and an image of a pen writing on a document with 'OSSLT' written on it. The message text reads: 'Secondary students who are preparing for the OSSLT can access further support for additional literacy skills practice through myCLASS. Users can click on LITERACY TEST (OSSLT) PREPARATION SITE from the list of courses. This site offers an overview of the test requirements, tips and strategies for reading and writing, as well as unlimited opportunities for practice quizzes and tests. Students receive immediate feedback and hints to help them improve their skills. This site will be fully operational by the middle of February. Please contact your secondary school's Literacy Committee and Administration for more information.'

Below the message, the 'My Courses' widget is visible. It has a 'Semester' dropdown menu set to '1617Sem2'. Underneath, a list of courses is shown, with 'OSSLT Prep Site Bishop Ryan' circled in red.

Please contact your School Literacy Chairpersons should you have any questions or concerns.
